

LLANGAIN COMMUNITY COUNCIL

Register of Members Interests

The Local Authorities (Model code of Conduct) Amendment Order introduced into law on 1st April 2016 and amends in part the 2008 code for local government members. In brief the 2016 Order :-

- a. Removes the obligation on members to report potential breaches of the code to the Ombudsman but rather relies on the Council to resolve issues at a local level.
- b. Transfers responsibility for maintaining the Register of Members Interests to the Clerk
- c. Clarifies that all personal interests disclosed must be entered in a register
- d. Clarifies the position in relation to member's participation in any business relating to Council's interests.

The amended Code of Conduct was adopted by Llangain Community Council at the June 2016 meeting but in order to comply with the Order every member must declare to the Clerk any interests that members have outside the Community Council and which may at some time affect or influence the Council's decision making .

In order that all members adhere to the requirements please complete the following information and return the form to the Clerk who will keep the information as a register of interests . The information will kept and reviewed regularly and should your interests change at some time, it is your responsibility to inform the Clerk.
